The American Orthopaedic Society for Sports Medicine

2016 AOSSM Fellows Course
Kickoff to Your Orthopaedic Sports Medicine Training Year

July 29-30, 2016
Orthopaedic Learning Center (OLC), Rosemont, IL

Course Chairs
Stephen F. Brockmeier, MD
Jeffrey R. Dugas, MD
Kurt P. Spindler, MD

Advancing the field of orthopaedic sports medicine requires extensive resources, and the AOSSM is committed to enhancing our partnerships with industry for the betterment of our members, our specialty and the patients they serve. We invite you to meet many of the new Sports Medicine Fellows by supporting the inaugural 2016 AOSSM Fellows Course, at either level outlined below.

This non-CME course will serve as a welcome to the sports medicine fellowship year with an intense overview of what Fellows will see in the ensuing year. The format includes didactic and hands-on lab sessions at the level expected of an incoming Fellow or independent practitioner. There is room in the lab for 72 participants, with additional space to accommodate more in the didactic session, and on the web via streaming.

$25,000 Level
- Friday evening: Table-top demo station in the OLC conference space during reception
- Saturday morning: Check-out station during/in the lab
- Saturday afternoon: Dedicated 2-hour open lab time with your equipment following the course (maximum of 4 stations)*
- Complimentary registration for up to 6 corporate representatives

Friday Evening Industry Symposium: For an additional $5,000 (or $30,000 total), add a 45 minute symposium of your choice to this package. (Limit 1 per company; only 1 Symposium now available.)
